

701/111 Quay Street, Brisbane

Perfect For First Home Owners Grant.

Placed in key positioning, 111 Quay Street will have you enjoying all the luxuries that come with living in the Brisbane City. Being only hundreds of meters away from Parklands, GOMA, QPAC and even the QLD Museum & Science Centre, finding amenities nearby will never be an issue.

Additionally, you will come to find yourself at the mouth of not one, but two bridges, connecting you to the southern side of the Brisbane River. Each of these are conveniently located at each end of Quay Street respectively, with signs aiding those who need them.

On top of this, you will be pleased to be only a short kilometre from a plethora of schools, including Brisbane Grammar, Petrie Terrace, Hubbard's School and also Milton State School. In regards to university education, you're in luck again! You are only minutes away to QUT Gardens Point Campus, and with numerous public transport locations nearby UQ and Griffith are only a short drive around the river.

Showing modern tones of white and grey, Quay Street offers beautiful simplicity of living at a fraction of the price. This apartment features two spacious bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, with a large 8m2 balcony which overlooks captivating views of both city and district areas, at the most-sought after South Eastern aspect. This home also includes air conditioning throughout. Apartments like these are not only like no other, but also do not last long.
