Situated opposite waterfront reserve this blue ribbon corner block of land is approximately 3015.8m2 (approximately) in area. The location is both tranquil and secluded at the end of a quiet sealed road. The secret local surf break, Lefties, which works a few times a year, is at your door step.

Joanne Muller

The first lot comprises a two bedroom cottage situated on 1164m2 (approximately) of park like grounds with stunning water views.

Adjoining is a 1049m2 (approximately) corner lot with water views in both directions. The large covered boatshed and workshop sits on this lot.

The third lot is 802.8m2 (approximately) in area with potential filtered water views through natural bush land.

This is a rare opportunity to secure arguably the finest parcel of land in Callala which has been held in the same family for approximately 55 years.
