STYLE AND SPACE ALL IN ONE HOUSE

Sometimes when a home has been built with space in mind they sacrifice on the style, well not in this case! From the moment you walk through the door there is a modern ambience that flows from the front to the back whilst allowing for the extended family to all have their comfort zone. 5 bedrooms, open plan living, true theatre room. plenty of storage options and capped off with quality fittings and ducted reverse cycle air conditioning throughout. Outside to compliment the solid 744m² of land there is a huge side patio and an oversized garden shed. Just to finish off the modern luxuries, there are 20 solar panels on the roof to help compensate the extra costs of having the bonus of all the family under one roof!
