

19 McKendry Street, Blenheim

Elegantly Appointed

Searching for a home to truly embrace with family and friends? This elegant home set in a quiet private area sets the scene for a treasured home which is a joy to share. From the moment the plans hit the desk, thoughtful and caring minds put together a home that offers more than expected. Graced with dual living areas, open plan dining, kitchen and family sitting area, you can continue to entertain as you transition to the expansive deck which stretches along the property. Extra care was taken with widened hallways, unique windows creating true charm, and with four bedrooms plus office, there is plenty of room for all. Raised ceilings weren't an exclusive benefit just for the living areas, this creative feature is carried into the master bedroom creating a spacious sanctuary with a walk through robe and ensuite. With the Taylor River a short walk away, this home is sited in a desirable and reputable location. Your search could be over today.
