

19 Temple Mews, Renwick

Big Section Big Home – Even Bigger Value

The generous 256sqm extremely sunny home boasts large open plan kitchen/dining living plus separate lounge all designed to seamlessly connect through French doors with the expansive decking options ensuring perfect inside/outside living for entertaining family and friends. Four double bedrooms, ensuite, bathroom, separate office and over size double garage ensure the family has plenty of space to live in and enjoy this wonderful home. Multiple heating options throughout the home ensures comfortable winter and summer living. A hot mix driveway leads to the house where there is plenty of parking for vehicles, boats, motor home and includes a secure gated area. Just a quick drive to Blenheim and within easy walking distance of supermarket, post office, top primary school, medical practice, old English pub and in an area with some of the best vineyards and cellar doors in the world. Set in extremely popular and favoured location the 1850sqm section is expansive and very private. The grounds are very impressive and over the years have been lovingly crafted and developed into a haven of expansive lawns, garden rooms and landscaped mature gardens that presents itself today. Lovers of space and quality will feel at home here in the best that semi-rural and town living provides.
