Summer Lovin'

Setting the standard in modern living – this elevated property is certainly worth your time – a handsome brick home that is large enough to house a family, but with a warm and intimate feel. The beautiful presentation hits you as you step through the door – you will instantly recognize that this home is meticulously cared for, and you are in for a treat! The gorgeous kitchen is the hub of the home, (ladies you will simply adore this space) you'll enjoy the way it blends seamlessly into both a relaxing sitting area, dining area and then out to the large entertaining deck and pool. There is also a separate, more formal living room which can be completely closed off, just great for peace and quiet. There are so many attributes to appreciate; four double bedrooms, generous walk in robe, ensuite, extra-large separate laundry, double internal garaging, great storage and established easy care gardens! Whether you are a family who needs space or a couple who love to entertain, this home is very special. ebook available on request.
