Beautifully bold in desirable location

Desiring a home with all the finer features, filled with style and finished in good taste? This gorgeous home will welcome you in with light and bright spaces and great functionality throughout. Generously providing four bedrooms plus study, large three car garaging and beautifully designed outdoor entertainment areas, this home has it all and more. The living areas wrap around and flow from the kitchen with butlers pantry and breakfast bar onto the dining and sitting area though to the lounge – all of which have access outside. Leading your eye outside is the tall pillars towering over the patio and water feature where you can relax in the evening sun. There is even electric shade sails on either side for shade in the summer with a push of a button. Great storage throughout, access to the popular Wither Hills Farm park with mountain bike tracks and walk ways, this well located home will be the envy of many.
