PRISTINE PRESENTATION

A home that has family warmth, love and care.

A 3 bedroom brick home built in the 1950's that has been kept spic and span over the years and has the addition of a good size conservatory and aluminium joinery.

At the front door is a covered porch area and a drive through car port leading through to a single garage workshop at the rear of the section.

Well fenced section with lovely flower and vegetable gardens and a tunnel house for the keen gardener.
