PARADISE FOUND! ARCADIA STATION DEVELOPMENT BLOCK

66 HECTARE DEVELOPMENT BLOCK - ARCADIA STATION, PARADISE, NEW ZEALAND

An iconic piece of New Zealand history This is a trophy landholding to create a world-class development unlike anything else on the planet.

Immediately familiar to most as a film location for several Hollywood blockbusters, this 66 hectare lakefront property, which includes the 111 year old, 11 bedroom Arcadia Heritage Homestead, is situated in Paradise, New Zealand, and is zoned 'Rural Visitor' for residential and visitor accommodation development. Acquisition of this landholding will allow a developer to create a very special retreat, surrounded by snow-capped peaks and unobstructed view of Diamond Lake.

Having 'Rural Visitor' zoning in place, this large site has development potential for a number of uses including high-end residential dwellings, visitor accommodation or a luxury lodge/retreat to rival the world's best.

Given the land's easy contour, spectacular outlooks, over 1km frontage to Diamond Lake, this is a golden opportunity for an eco-friendly developer, investor or syndicate to cause a development worthy of the unique zoning.

Interested buyers are invited to visit the property website below and contact me for a comprehensive information pack. Your inquiry will be promptly answered.
