The quality continues in the well-equipped kitchen with Smeg appliances, such as hob, pyrolytic oven and Bosch dishwasher. Down lights throughout the home give a light and airy feel, and bring out the natural tones and colours of the furniture and fittings.

The home has a large converter that pushes hot or cold air around the ducted system throughout the house. There is a second toilet opposite the well-appointed laundry as you head out into the garden. The large garden matches the house being very neat and tidy and low maintenance with the added bonus of an underground watering system.
